

Piramal Realty appoints new CEO

Piramal Realty, the real estate arm of Piramal Group, on Tuesday announced the appointment of Naaman Atallah as chief executive officer (CEO). Naaman was formerly the CEO of Dubai Properties. Here he led a portfolio of 144 projects worth $30 billion, which included residential, commercial, retail and hospitality developments. Previously, he held the position of chief operating officer at Qatari Diar where he was in charge of an international portfolio of over 30 projects worth more than $40 billion, including the prestigious Chelsea Barracks project in London. He was also the COO of Emaar Properties PJSC, where he worked extensively on some of the world's most iconic projects such as Burj Khalifa, Armani Hotel Dubai and The Dubai Mall. BS REPORTER
